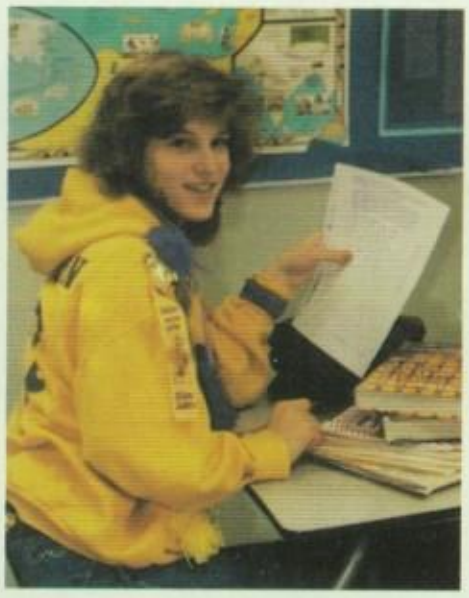
It's Just a Game



Games are a big part of our lives, giving us entertainment, adventure, relaxation, and escape from the daily routine. They range from computer games that collect our quarters to the Olympics with all of the excitement and anticipation. But, our biggest game is life. Balancing classes, dances, practices, rehearsals, work schedules, and "just plain fun" requires strategy. Our diverse activities scatter us around like billiard balls. We know the thrill of victory: keeping the DING DONG bell, turning in that never-ending term paper, starring in Annie . . . and we know the agony of defeat: losing the game by one point, failing a test, or working on prom night . . . We reminisce about our yesterdays, plan our tomorrows, and enjoy our todays. And, we keep playing the game.

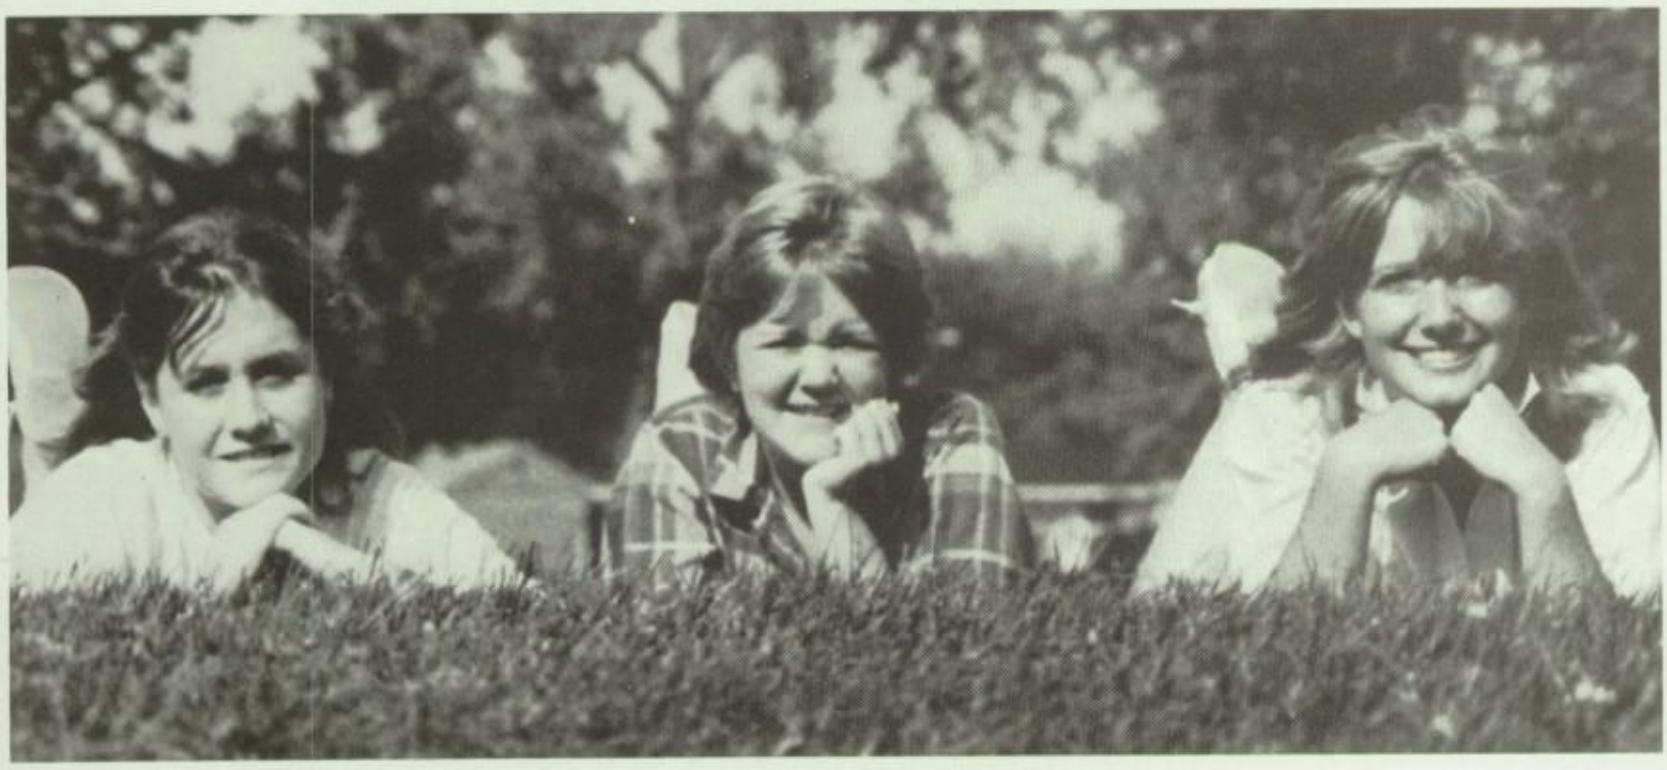
The best part of school is the friends we make along the way. Whether we are going to a party, spending the day shopping, or playing a game of checkers, our friends make everything special. They help with our homework, get us that perfect date, and celebrate our victories. Friends accept us as we are and they are always there when we need them.

Friends



Dazzle 'em

While everyone enjoys the comfort of worn jeans and faded T-shirts, we all have our elegant moments. Dances, graduation, banquets, parties: whatever the occasion, hours of shopping, planning, and anticipation lead up to the event. And when the evening ends, these cherished moments are captured with pictures, pressed flowers, and memories.

After Hours

The bell rings — it's 2:25 and the day ends, or does it just begin? In those afternoon and evening hours, we manage to attend countless games, parties and dances; spend hours at McDonald's, in the malls, or outdoors. Whatever we decide to do, we can always count on having a good time. That makes up for the hours of sitting still.

Active Life

Whatever sport we pick, we all seem to participate in something. Our sport choices range from football to Jazzercise; from golf to bowling. These activities are exciting, relaxing, and best of all, fun! And, they get our blood pumping: that's great, especially in the dead of winter.

Classes are the substance of our school day. We learn countless amounts of facts, ideas, and concepts. The courses offered are great in variety and skill level. This provides for a more personal education. While some of the classes we believe we will never survive, others really aren't so bad. In fact, sometimes we find one that we really enjoy. Homework is a big aspect of classes too — something we dread almost as much as exams. But at graduation we find it's all worth while because Maumee High School has really prepared us to succeed in whatever we plan next. And if we keep working we will hit the bull's-eye of success.

Olympic Relay Across America

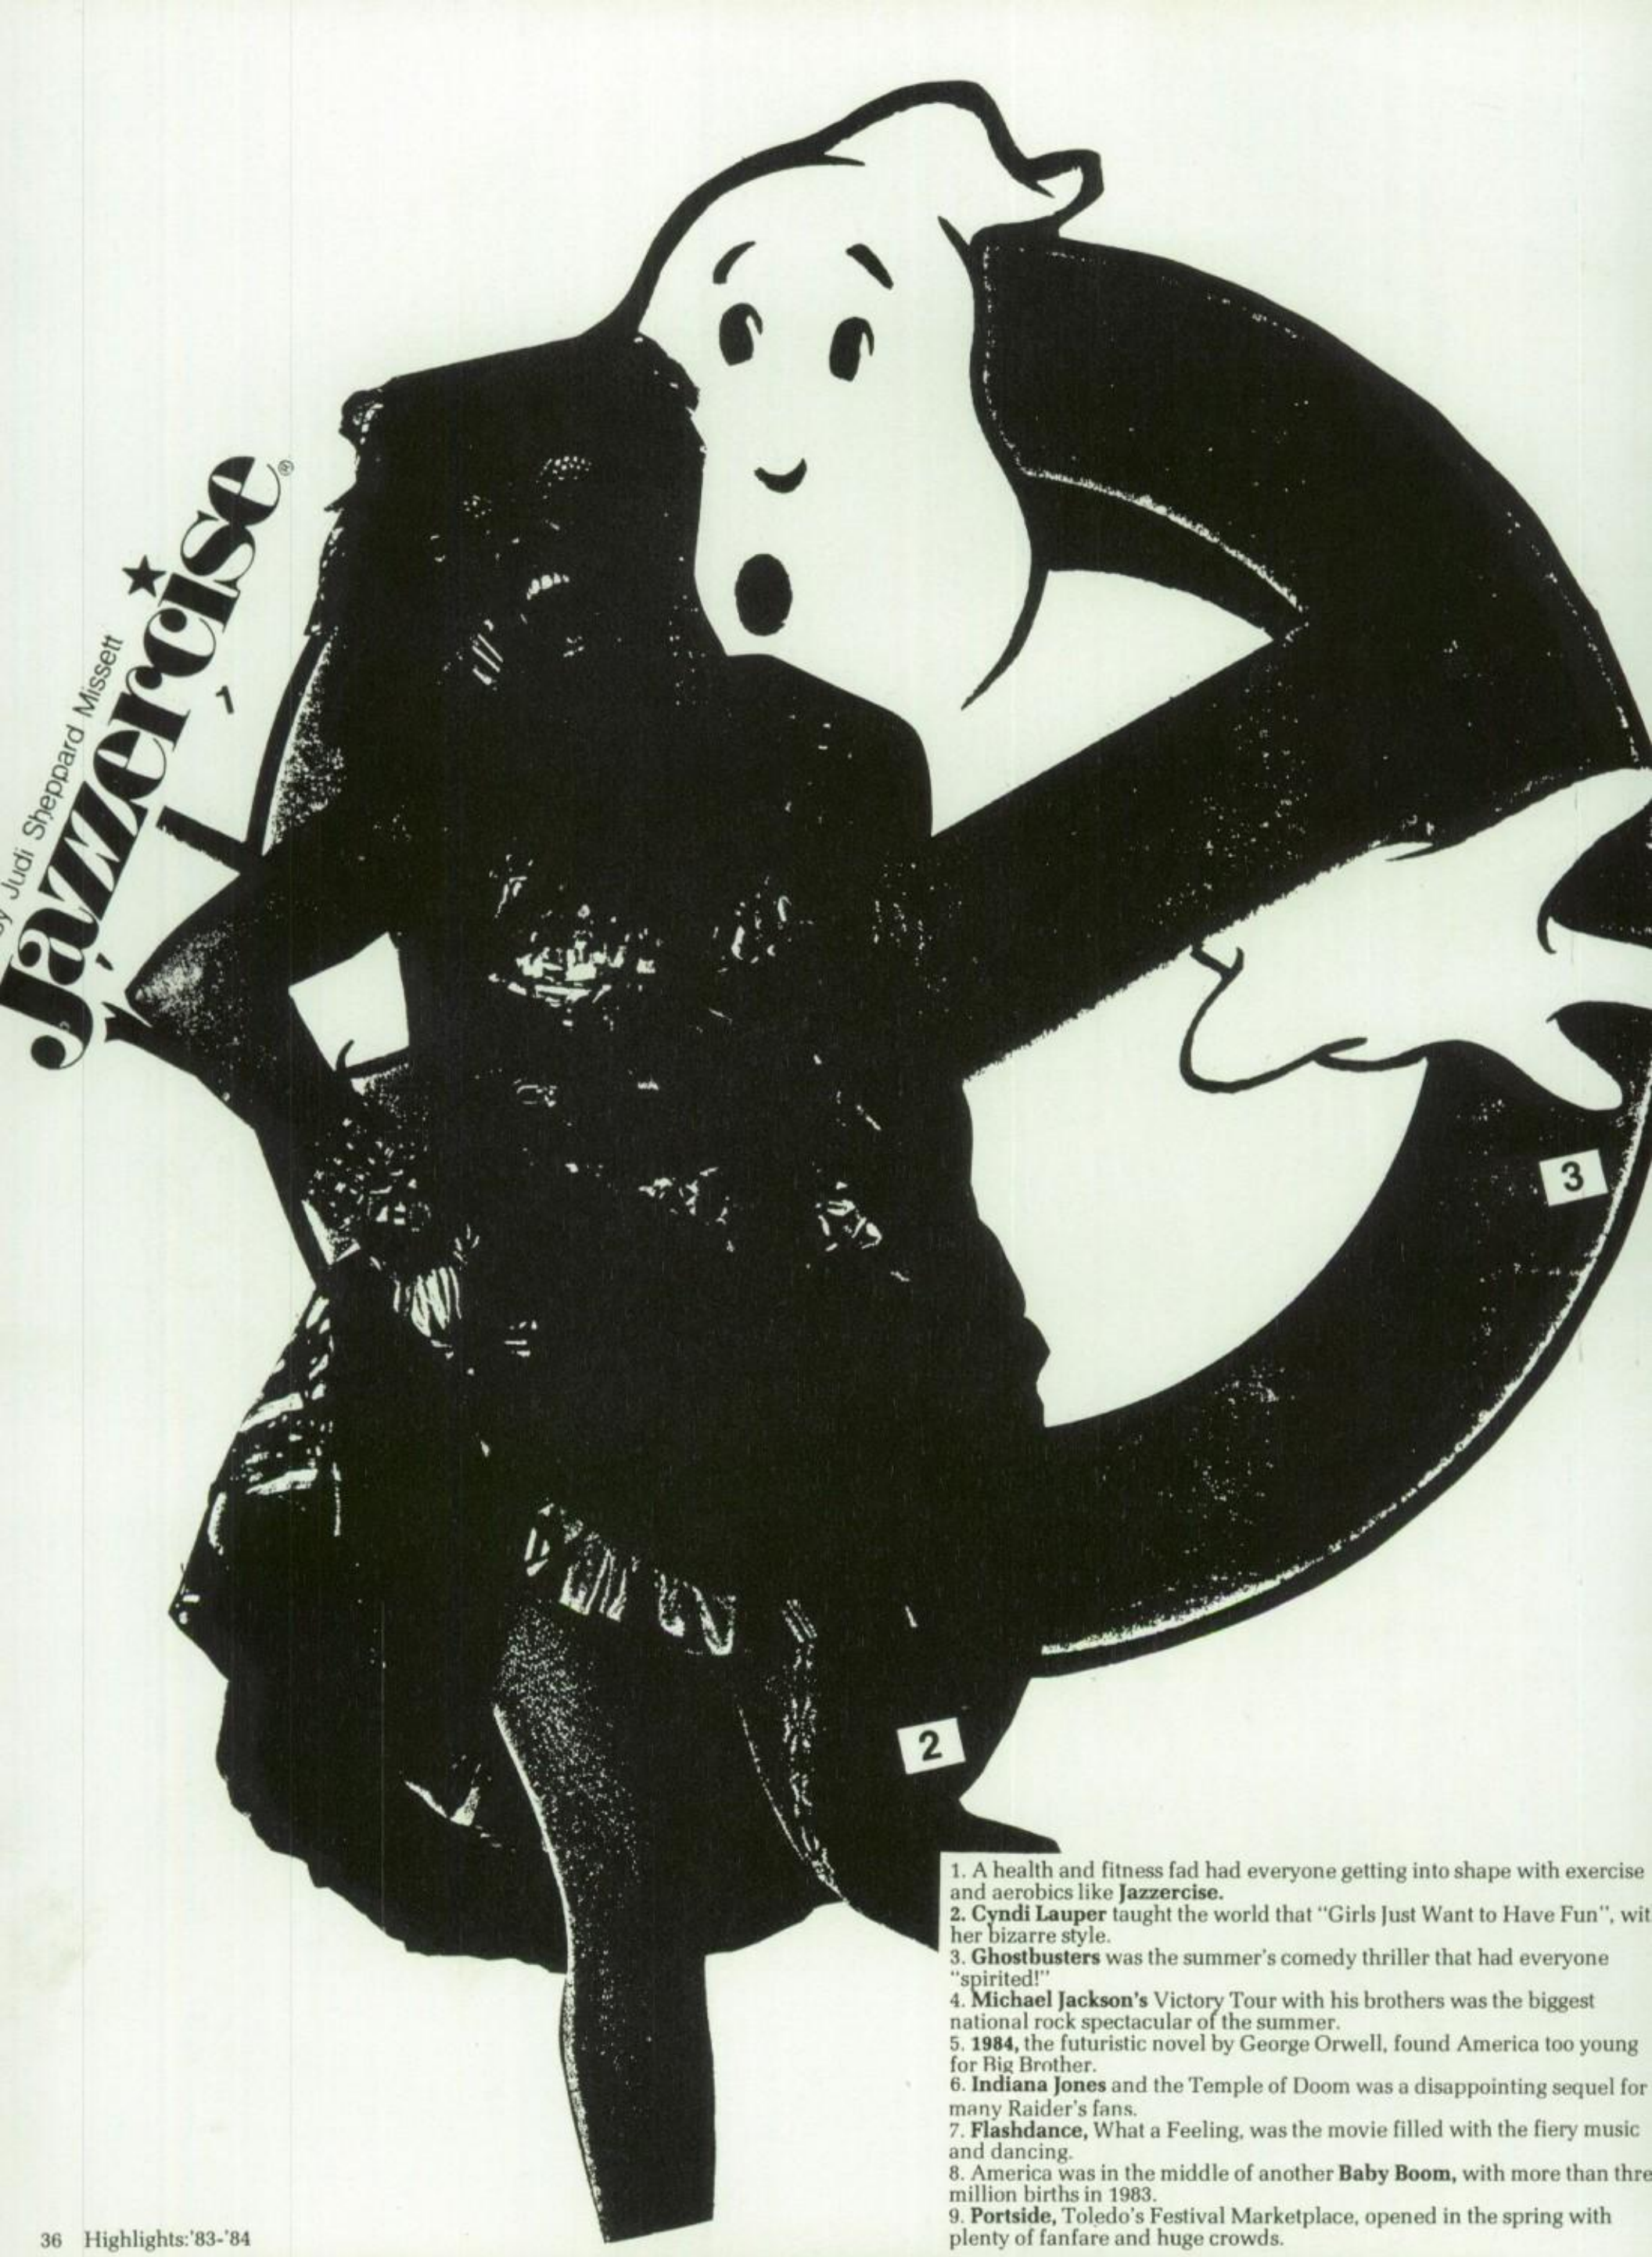
The Olympic flame from Greece is now crossing the U.S. in a 33-state, 9,000-mile relay. Taking turns bearing the torch are some 4,000 runners, ranging in age from 7 to 91, who pay $3,000 apiece for the privilege of carrying it 1 kilometer. The money goes charities benefiting young peop The map shows tentative dates the flame to reach some of the citi on its 82-day trip fr New York to the Los A geles Olympics.

America's Chances for Olympic Gold

Cabbage Patch Kids

Around the world, the 1983-84 school year was filled with extremes. Tides of excitement and enthusiasm were washed out by waves of doubt and despair. A mixture of events made headlines and history. Compiled on the next six pages are many of the fads, events, and faces that defined our high school years.

1. Trivial Pursuit was everyone's favorite new pastime. Competition soared to see who could remember the most trivia.
2. Cabbage Patch Kids utilized the latest in computer wizardry. Made by Coleco, each doll was uniquely different from the rest and had its own adoption papers.
3. Friendship Pins with colored beads were the rage in the elementary classrooms that even crept into the high school scene.
4. Wacky Wall Walkers were sticky rubber creatures that slowly tumbled down the wall, leg over leg.
5. Scott Hamilton, Bowling Green's prized figure skater made international history with his Olympic Gold performance at Sarajevo.
6. The 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia were an exciting winter spectacle. American medals stacked up in the Alpine and Skating events with several golds and silvers, but no bronze in the final standings.
7. With the Summer '84 Olympics scheduled for Los Angeles, the American excitement started early with the torch relay. The flame passed through Toledo in the middle of May on its western journey.
8. President Reagan worked to accomplish as much as possible during his final year in office, while working to stay popular among voters for a second term.
9. Walter Mondale and Gary Hart fought a long battle clear to the convention for the Democratic nomination. Jessie Jackson, America's first black to run for the nomination also continued his campaign to the convention.
10. Astronaut Sally Ride was America's first woman in space on the Challenger Shuttle.
11. Princess Diana, Buckingham Palace announced, was expecting a new royal baby, due in September, 1984.



1. A health and fitness fad had everyone getting into shape with exercise and aerobics like Jazzercise.
2. Cyndi Lauper taught the world that "Girls Just Want to Have Fun", wit her bizarre style.
3. Ghostbusters was the summer's comedy thriller that had everyone "spirited!"
4. Michael Jackson's Victory Tour with his brothers was the biggest national rock spectacular of the summer.
5. 1984, the futuristic novel by George Orwell, found America too young for Big Brother.
6. Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom was a disappointing sequel for many Raider's fans.
7. Flashdance, What a Feeling, was the movie filled with the fiery music and dancing.
8. America was in the middle of another Baby Boom, with more than thre million births in 1983.
9. Portside, Toledo's Festival Marketplace, opened in the spring with plenty of fanfare and huge crowds.

2. Steven Spielburg's Gremlins: Never put them in bright light; never get them wet; and never, never feed them after midnight.
3. The Arms Race was the season's top political question.
4. Boy George and the Culture Club redefined the drag queen with wild costumes, make-up and hairstyles.
5. Wind Surfing became the popular new sport, combining the thrill of surfing with the power of the sail.
6. On September 1, 1983, Korean Air Lines Flight 007 was shot down into the Sea of Japan by a Soviet air-to-air missile, all 269 passengers and crew members were killed.
7. On October 23, 1983, at 6:22 am, a truck filled with TNT barreled through the Lebanese army checkpoint and into the U.S. Marine Compound. The explosion toppled four stories, crushing over 300 occupants. It took over three weeks to clear through the debris. In all, over 240 U.S. Servicemen were killed.

Commencement

We've Just Begun

On Sunday, June 3, nearly 260 graduates filed into the Masonic Auditorium to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance." This year, however, Graduation took a unique turn in the presentation of Scholarships and Awards. A special program, compiled by the Guidance Department, listed the names of these accomplished students and the honors they received. During the ceremony, the names of the students were read so that they could be recognized. A special award was given to Class Valedictorian, Beth Brubaker.

Anna Ruggiero, Senior Class President and State Speech Champion, gave the Senior Address, "Dial 'D' for Discovery," and Erin Warren performed the vocal solo, "You'll Never Walk Alone." Also, a Piano Quintet made up by seniors, Beth Brubaker, Marlene Momenee, Tricia Snyder, Anne Oliver, and Amy Betz played the song "Dear Father." After Principal Lee Black presented the Class of 1984, Board of Education President, Mr. Smith awarded the diplomas to the graduates.

Also participating in the Commencement Exercises were Rev. Joseph Hefner, giving the Invocation and Rev. Robert Girdwood who delivered the Benediction.

Beach Dance

Here Comes Summer

The temperature was rising and everyone was ready for FUN, FUN, FUN. This year's rash of "STAG-N-DRAG" dances ended with a super successful Beach Party sponsored by the Freshman and Sophomore classes. Even though the Prom was only a couple weeks away, the May 4th dance captured its own action, drawing quite a crowd to Luke's Barn. A D.J. kept things hoppin' and one thing is for sure: there were plenty of Beach Boys requests.

1. Brad, Jodie, and Stephanie: the Coppertone Kids.
2. Becky, Tracy, Sue, Lisa, and Elise — ready for action.
3. "This is so much fun!"
4. Laura, watch that glare from the ocean!
5. Mark is dancin' the night away.

Battle of the Bands

Original Entertainment

This winter, the Student Council decided to sponsor a new event at Maumee. Spurred on by battles between young music bands across the Toledo area, the students held their own contest between the bands formed by MHS musicians. Four bands competed for the top prize and the applause of the audience determined the winner to be the St. Jude Travel Club. The evening drew a large crowd and was a really fun new idea. Maybe it will become an annual tradition!

1. Pat keeps everyone in the spotlight.
2. Amy goes with a new "look" for the event.
3. Even the chaperons sit back and enjoy the music.
4. St. Jude Travel Club has a gimmick that is really different.

2. Mike Wing, lead singer in Dieter Scott.
3. Dieter Scott sets quite a stage.
4. Molly, Sue, Terri, Tammy, and Brooke really dress for the occasion.

Homecoming

The Essence of Autumn

The 1983-1984 Homecoming Court: Dana Rogge, Laura Ahrendt, Debbie Bing, Julie Knight, Tammy Steele, Sue Mathias, and Melanie Heisler.

The traditional Homecoming festivities started on a successful note Friday night with the football team winning against Anthony Wayne. After the Panthers triumphantly defeated the Generals, 27-0, the celebrations began . . . and this triumphant spirit continued through the weekend. On Saturday evening, September the 24th, this same enthusiasm magically added to the atmosphere of the Homecoming dance "The Essence of Autumn." The dance was sponsored by the senior class, featured the band Pagent, and was held at the high school. Julie Knight, our Homecoming Queen, reigned majestically over the members of her court: Junior Attendant — Debbie Bing, Sophomore Attendant — Laura Ahrendt, Freshman Attendant — Dana Rogge, and Penta Attendant. For the first time in the history of the event, two girls, Sue Mathias and Tammy Steele, tied for the honor of representing the senior class.

1. Laura and Fred capture the mood nicely as they dance.
2. Diana, Henry, Dave, and Barry celebrate the occasion.
3. Tina and Ron show just how much fun slow dancing can be.
4. Matt and Sue put their heads together to plan a good time.

Powder Puff

Anything Boys Can Do Girls Can Do Better

Once again our lady Panthers sacrificed their curling irons and tied back their hair in order to get down to the knitty "griddy" of real athletic competition. Practicing long hours with football's leading coaches, they learned complicated plays and planned their strategy.

Despite a rainy Wednesday night, the girls were determined to play to the finish. As tradition states, the seniors joined up with the freshmen to do battle against the junior-sophomore team. The game was hard-fought but in the end the junior-sophomore players pulled ahead, winning an edging victory over the senior-freshman squad.

1. Gentlemen prefer Hanes.
2. Some action on the sidelines.
3. What do you think? I brushed my hair with an electric toothbrush!
4. What an offensive line!
5. How'd we do, coach?

Spirit Celebration

This year's Perrysburg week preceeding the rival football game followed the traditional custom of setting aside specific days for specific activities. Organized by the cheerleaders, the festivities began on Tuesday. From hall decorations to college jerseys, the school spirit gained momentum and intensity leading up to Friday's color day. Purple and gold filled the hallways as students showed their "Panther Pride." The overall success of this year's Perrysburg week proved to be a highlight of the entire football season.

The Miracle Worker

An Amazing Story

This fall the Drama Club presented The Miracle Worker. In this touching play, Helen Keller is a blind and deaf girl who learns to communicate with the dedicated help of her teacher, Annie Sullivan. The challenging production required every ounce of strength that leading actresses Kezia Carpenter (Helen) and Erin Warren (Annie) could give.

The stage was uniquely set on various levels for dramatic effect, an original design by Pat Myers.

Relying on experienced talent and training eager underclassmen, the director, Mrs. Myers, created another outstandingly successful show.

1. Erin Warren as Annie Sullivan.
2. The ghost of Annie's past.
3. W-A-T-E-R
4. Annie works with the students at the blind school.
5. Helen and Annie: a unique relationship.

1. Annie Sullivan meets Helen's mother, Kate and brother.
2. Helen plays with her doll, comforted by her aunt.
3. Anagnos, Annie's teacher.
4. A tense Keller family dinner.
5. Helen reaches to identify a friendly face.

MORP,

A Backward Group

What do you get when you spell prom backwards? You've got it . . . MORP! On November 19, 1983 the word "turnabout" took on a whole new meaning at the Student Council sponsored dance! Crazy couples competed for the award of "MORPIEST" or most backward. Mixed up matches and reversed fashions added to the zaniness of the evening. Kezia Carpenter and Brad Thomas uniquely carried out the theme by pinning their corsages on their backs! This, along with their overall "MORPY" style won them the honor of being named "MORPIEST COUPLE."

1. Marty Mitten and his date cuddle in the corner.
2. Debbie does the locomotion.
3. Kim — haven't we seen that hat before?

Winter Dance

Ice Castles

The annual Winter Dance had all of its usual charm, mystically casting a wintery magic over everyone. The theme was Ice Castles and the dance was sponsored by the Student Council. The court of Winter Princesses included: Freshman, Julie Klement; Sophomore, Tammy Irwin; Junior, Jenny Grzegorzewski; and Penta Rep. Mary Feck. The Queen of the festivities was Sue Mathias and Scott Hirth reigned as King.

The dance was a successful way to rid everyone of their cabin fever and winter blues. It was an evening of snow spectacular among days of slush and chills.

1. Mary Feck and her date share the Court's Dance.
2. Henry and Dave head for the refreshments.

Youth in Education

Teachers Take a Holiday

Before MHS turns out a new group of graduates each year, they are given a chance to view life from the other side of the tracks — the teacher's side. As students and teachers trade places, they work to coordinate lesson plans that will be exciting and challenging for both the new teachers and old students. It's a unique learning experience that is packed full of fun.

Annie

You Won't Be an Orphan for Long

This spring the Drama Club was the first performing group in Northwestern Ohio to do Annie. Running for five shows, the musical held the honor of being Maumee's longest, most spectacular production. With Mrs. Myers taking center stage as Director, leading lady Mrs. Stalter was the Assistant Director. Music Men Mr. Burns, Musical Director; Mr. Morin, Orchestra Conductor; and Mr. Slivinski, Choreographer, kept everyone in step with the beat.

Jennifer Nagy was a dynamic Annie and Jeff Greisiger and Joel Hefner took turns as her Daddy Warbucks. Sell out crowds for nearly every performance told the tale of the play's special appeal. Congratulations cast and crew!!

April Fool's Dance

Joker's Wild

This will definitely be remembered as the year of the "stag or drag" dances. These dances, sponsored by various clubs and organizations were successful in encouraging student participation. The April Fool's dance, held on April 6th and sponsored by the Spanish and Y-Teens, was no exception. The highlight of the night was the crowning of Kezia Carpenter and Brad Thomas as King and Queen Fool. Break-dancing, punk outfits, and crazy enthusiasm made the evening a night of foolish pleasure for everyone.

2. Stephanie and Mike look as if they've put in a long evening dancing.

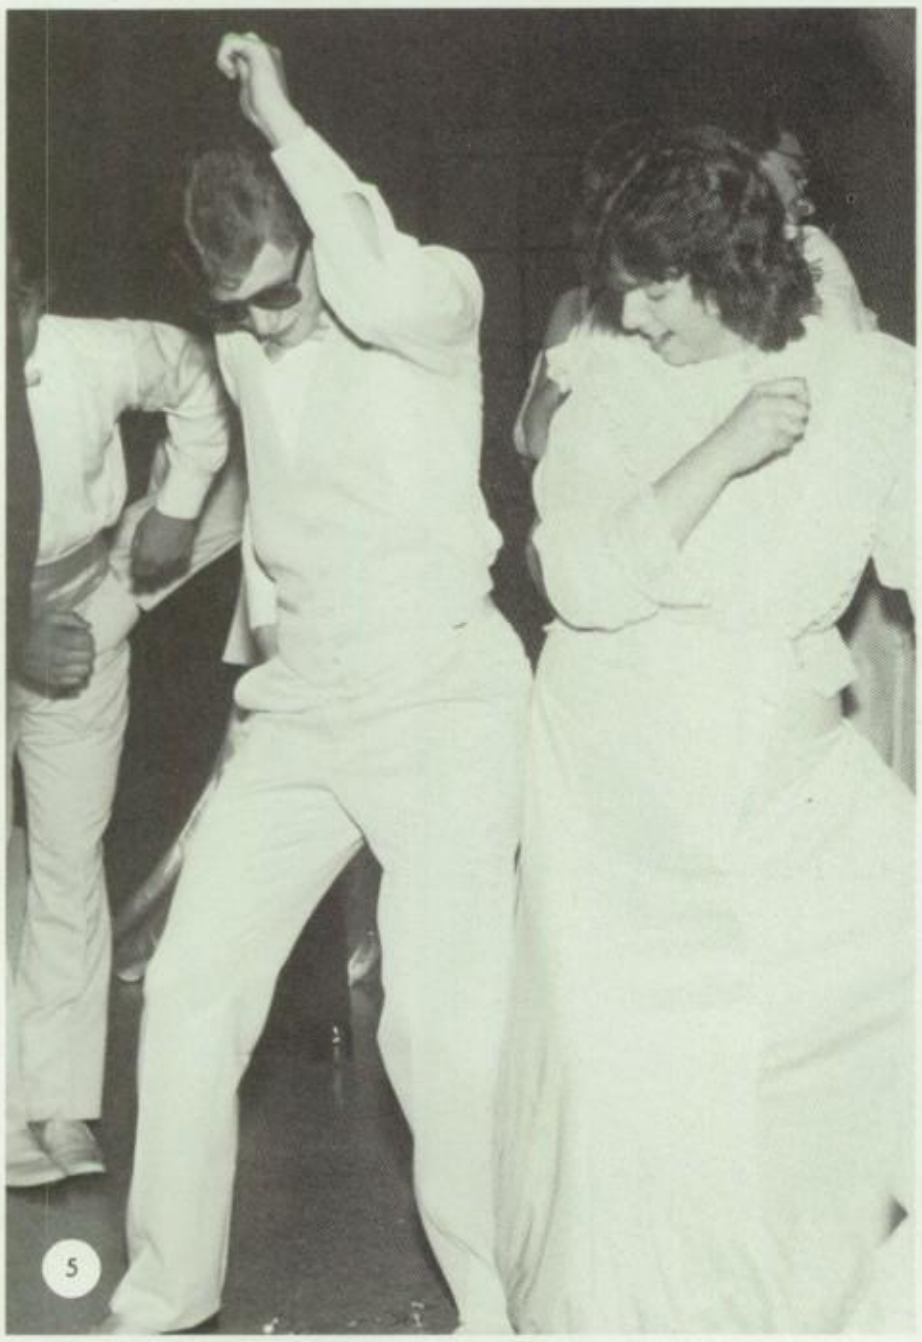
Prom

Heaven

After long debating and brainstorming, the junior class officers selected Heaven as the Prom theme and after that, plans really started to roll. Using unique decorations to create a Heaven-sent atmosphere, the committee transformed the U.T. Student Union into a romantic ballroom. When the doors opened at 8:00 on May 19th, couples came to dance the night away after long, elegant dinners. A D.J. kept the mood rolling, developing a balance between lively, exciting music and romantic slow dances. For everyone who attended, it will be a night long remembered!



1. The Gang's all here!
2. Talk about a grand entrance!
3. Brad and Kezia make a sophisticated couple.
4. Brett and Karen
5. "It's hard to do the Bump in this long dress!"

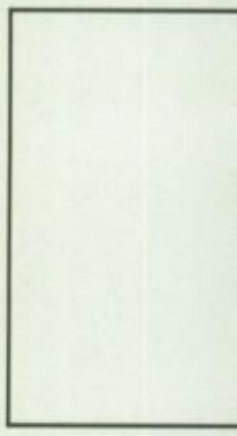
Spirit Leaders



Raising school spirit isn't their sole responsibility. To finance their job, the Maumee High School Cheerleaders sponsor such money raising projects as the annual Cheerleading Clinic and the Beach Dance.

To encourage players, the cheerleaders make locker signs, decorate the gym, make good luck pillow cases, and organize pep assemblies. What other team must keep smiling throughout bad weather and defeats?

Cross Country

Running Hard

Coach Dugai's boys' cross-country team once again had another outstanding season. With a record of 7-2, the only N.L.L. loss came from a close meet with Perrysburg. Senior Todd Nichols lead the team to win close meets with Southview, Bowling Green, and always tough Anthony Wayne.

Coach Tomasic, however, had a tougher time with the girls' cross-country team. The girls finished the season with a 2-7 record and a fifth place finish in the N.L.L. Wins came from both Springfield and Lake. It was certainly a year for rebuilding.

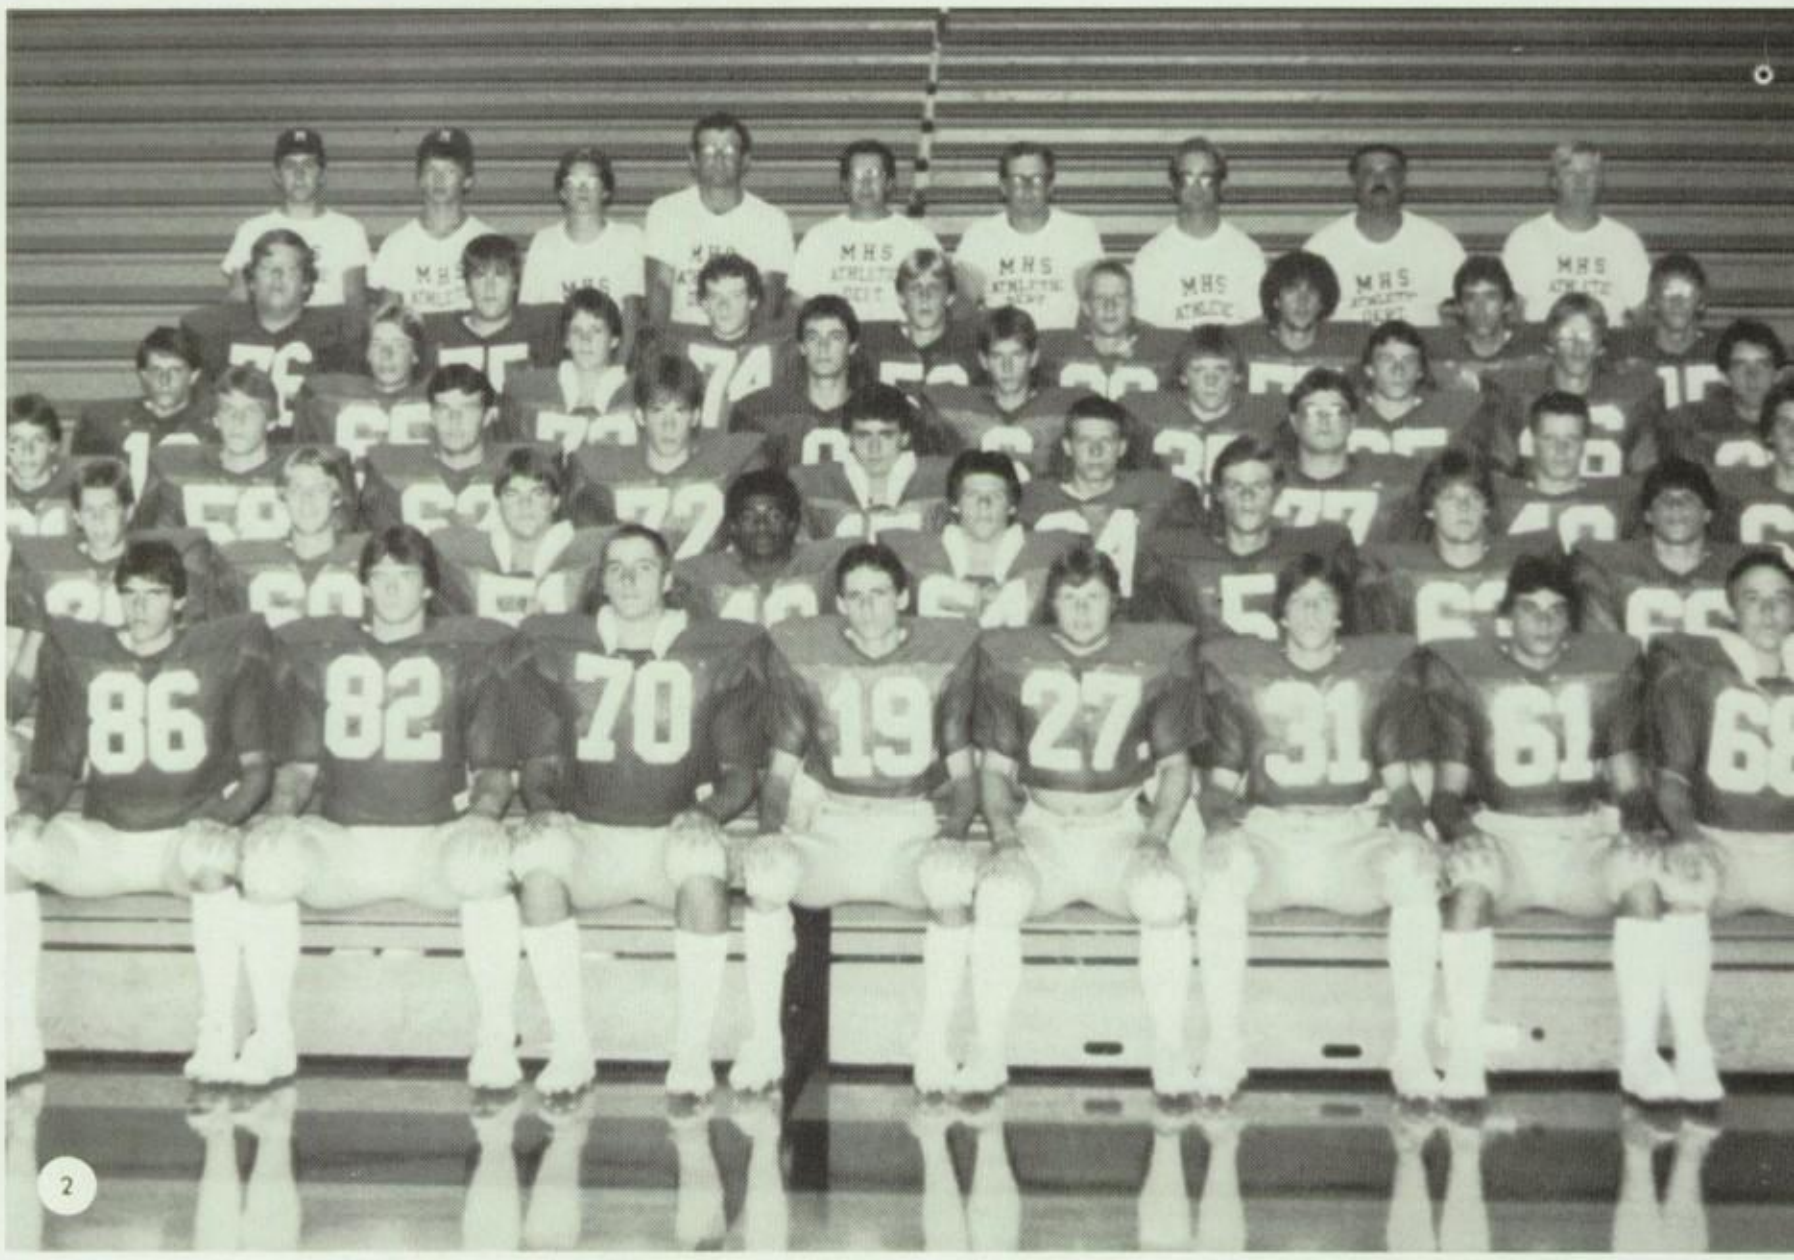
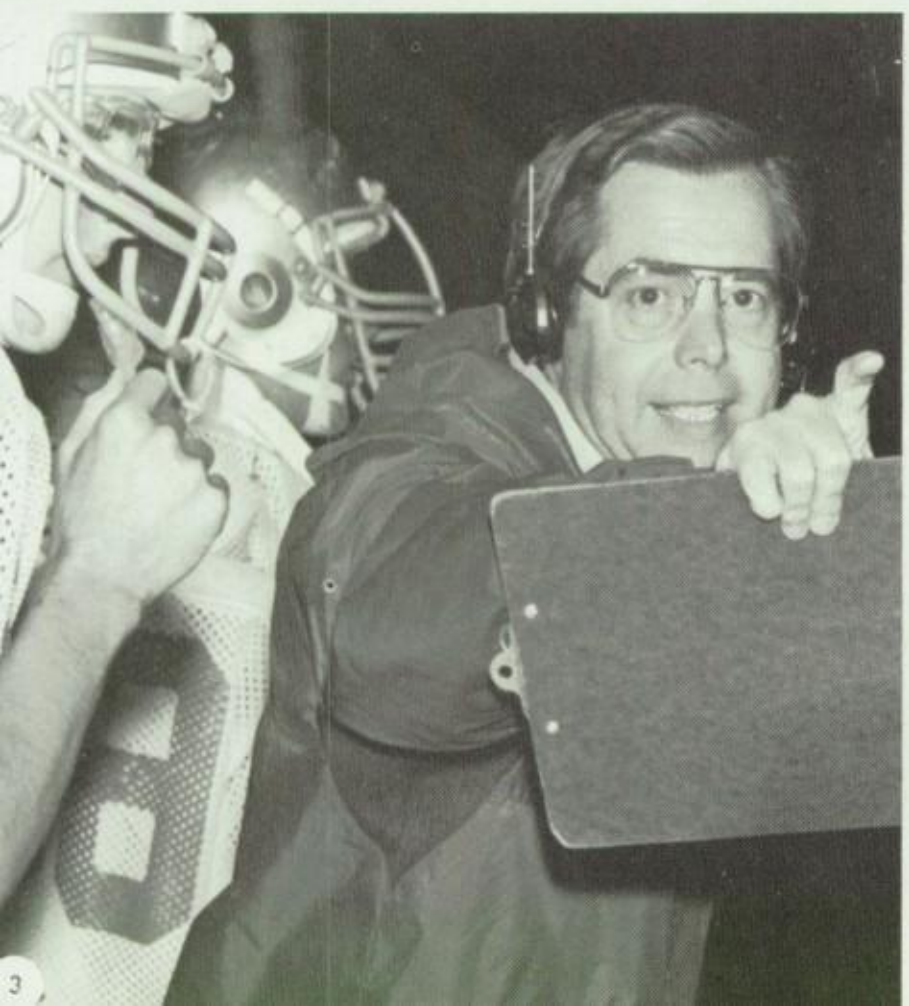
Football

A Winning Season





Although the season opened in distant Elida, the long trip payed off with the team bringing home an exciting victory. Each Friday night our league standings improved and by the time the big Maumee-Perrysburg game rolled around, the players were in top form, retaining possession of the famous Ding Dong Bell with a one point victory over the Jackets. The only Panther setbacks came from St. Johns and Lake and the anticipation lasted through the final game at Rossford when a runaway Maumee victory captured a tie in the NLL championship with Lake. Both the JV and Freshman teams won the NLL title also, showing fantastic potential for success in the coming seasons.

With a fantastic finale, Mr. Boyles ended his coaching career of eleven years at Maumee, adding a melancholy note to the '83 football season. Coach LaFountaine was named as his successor. Thanks Coach Boyles for all of the yards accumulated over years of hard work and good luck Coach LaFountaine for many victories ahead.

Co-captains Ken Walczak and Bill Hofmann lead the wrestlers who fought to win despite several injuries on the squad. Mr. McDermott was named the wrestling coach of the year and Jeff McCreey was given the title "Best Wrestler in the League." Basketball

An Even Season

In his first year at Maumee, Coach Robinson directed the team to its best season in four years. After an early season slump, the Panthers came alive to rebound back to a seven game winning streak including a 35-34 win over rival Perrysburg.

What was their secret to recovery? Practicing to music claimed to increase their intensity. Finishing the season 10-10, the Panther team went on to two rounds of AAA Sectional Tournament with a 11-11 record. Have we seen a turnaround?

Led by seniors Tracy McCreery, Laura Burnett, and Lisa Geis, the Varsity Girls Softball team had a stunning season. Boys Tennis

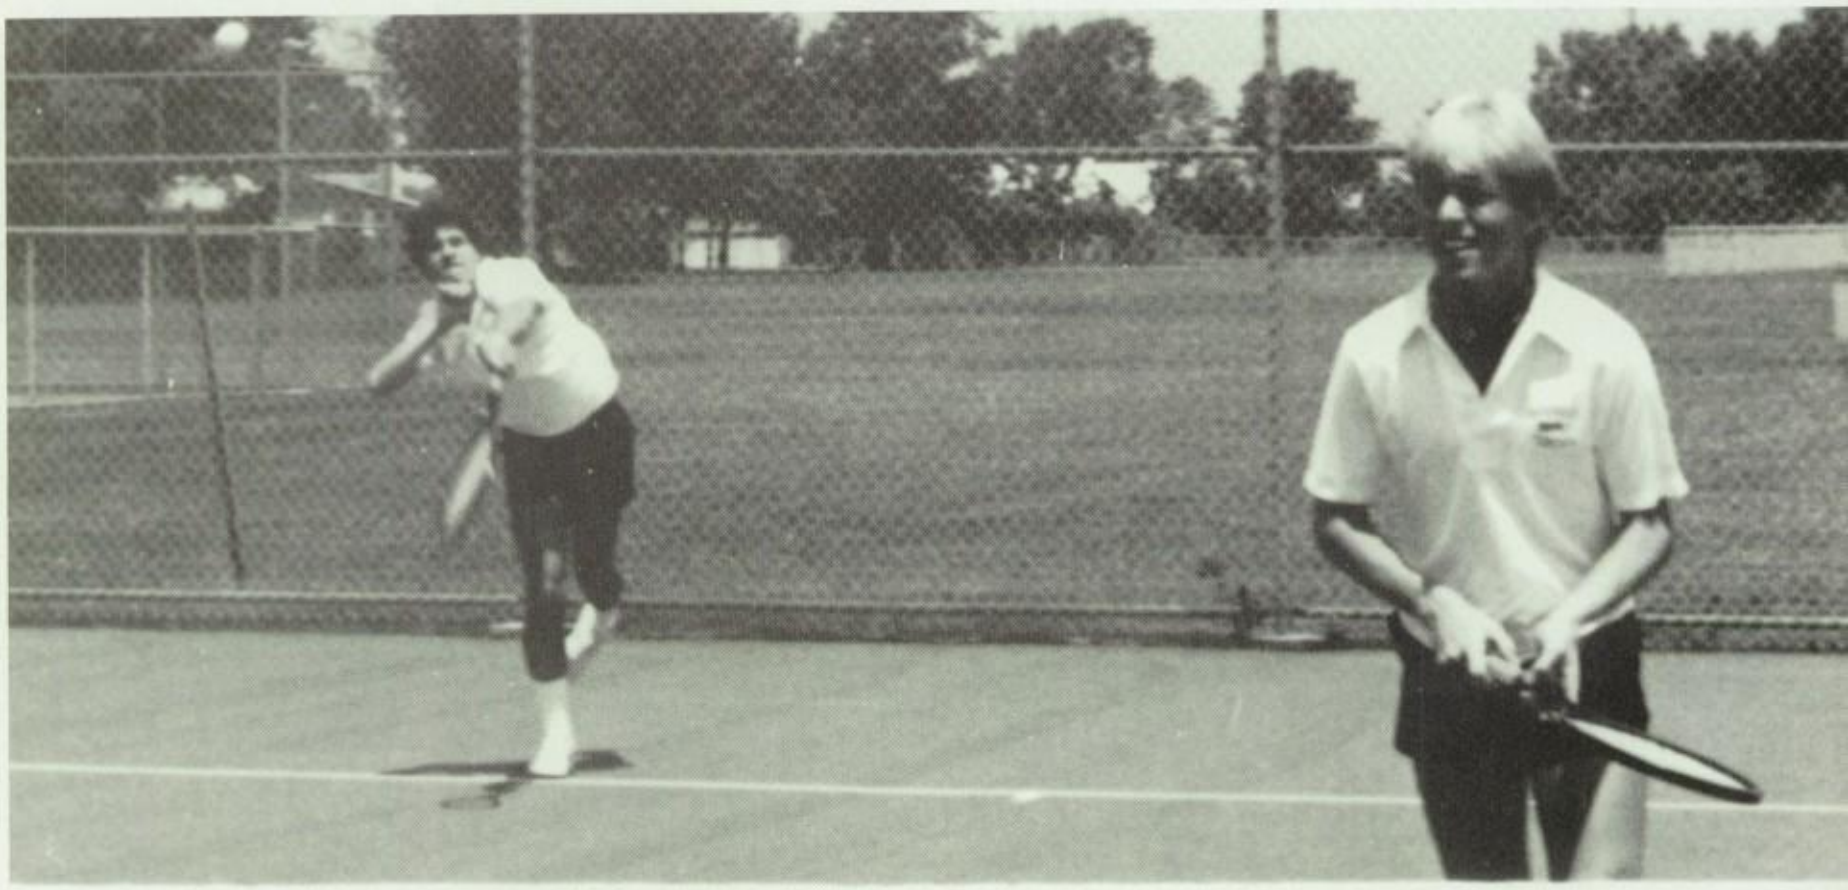
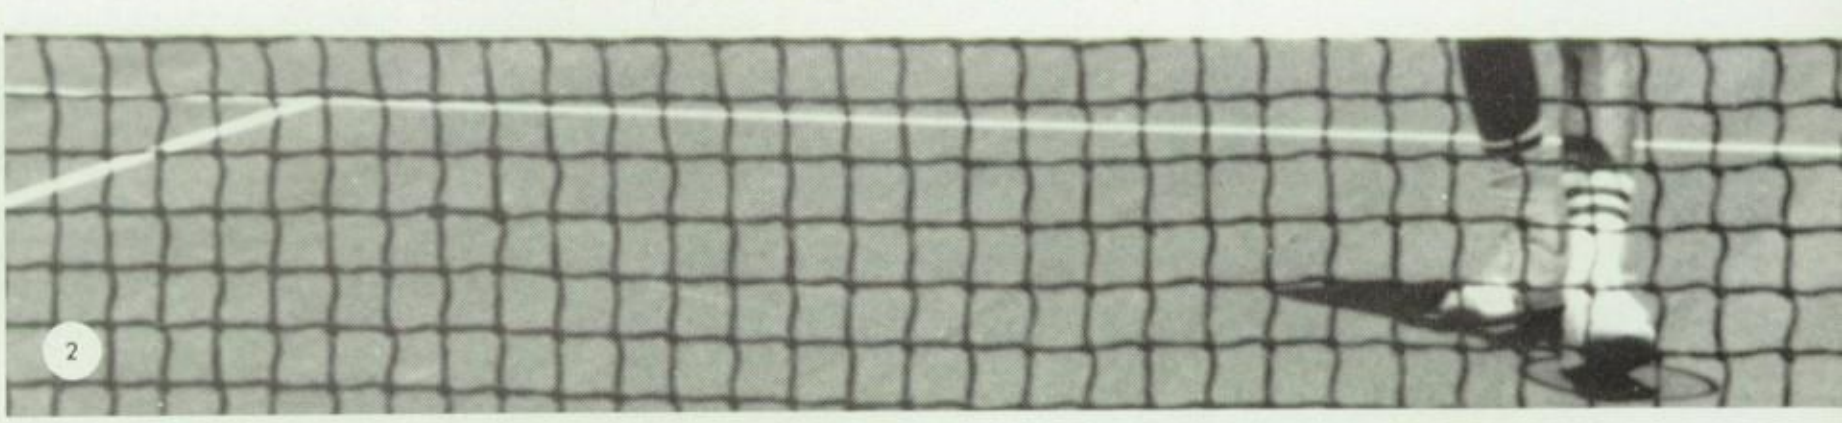
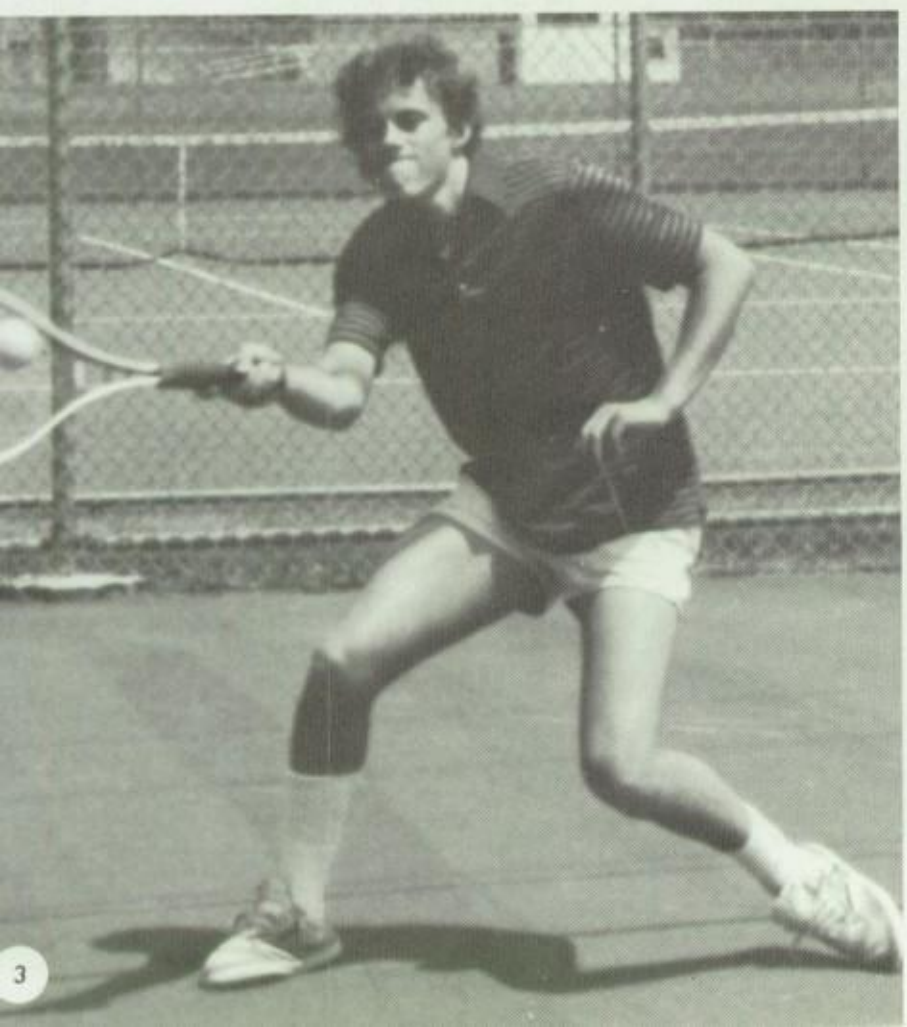
Anyone?







It was a rebuilding year for Maumee's Varsity Boy's Tennis team with many new faces on the tennis scene. Coach Oak Favro in his first year as a Maumee coach, constantly had the boys practicing both at the school courts and at Laurel Hills. Despite his efforts, the team had a surprisingly disappointing N.L.L. team finish. On the bright side, the team had discovered the freshman sensation of Paul Schultz and next year's results can only get better.

This year's varsity team included: first singles, Paul Lindsay; second singles, John Luscombe; third singles, Paul Schultz; first team doubles, Bart Girdwood and Ron Cady; and second team doubles, Scott Leicht and Rick McAllister.

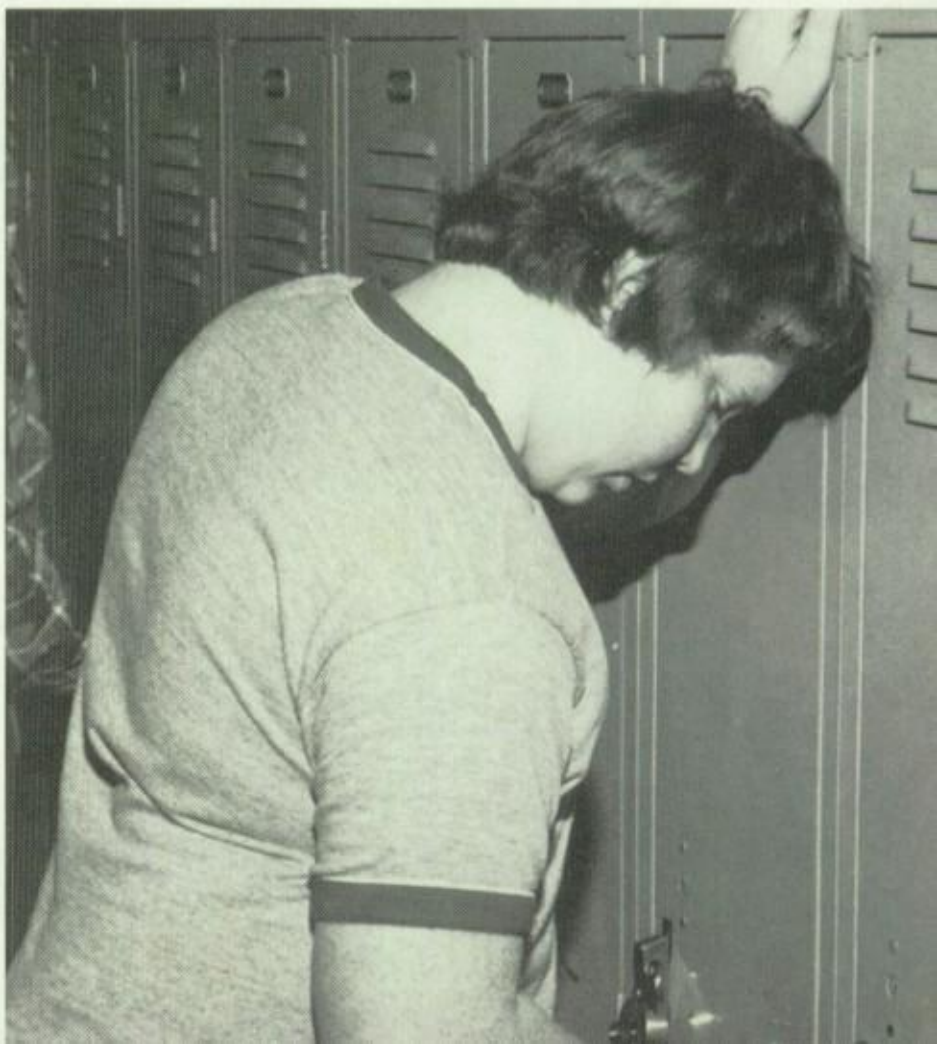
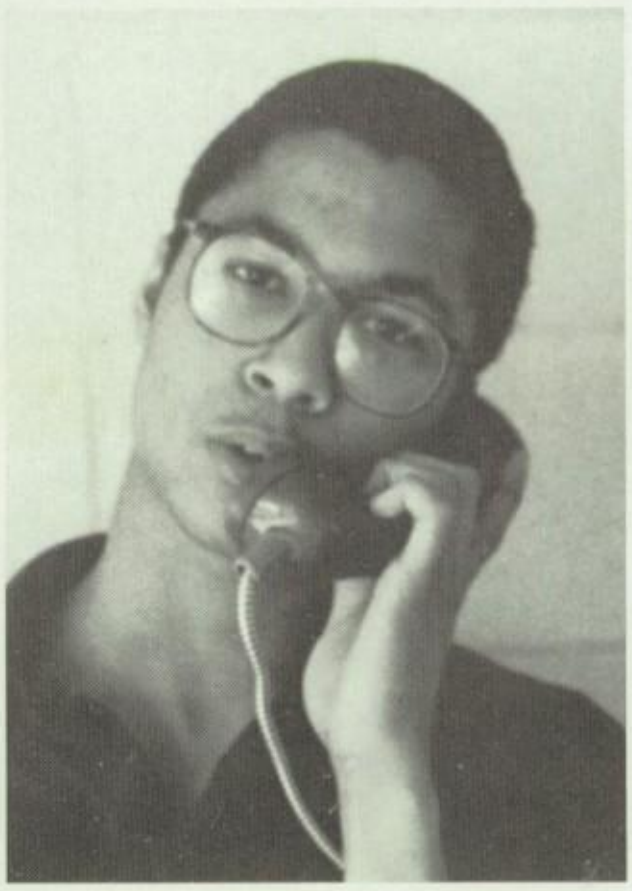
Lots of Success for the Class of 1984

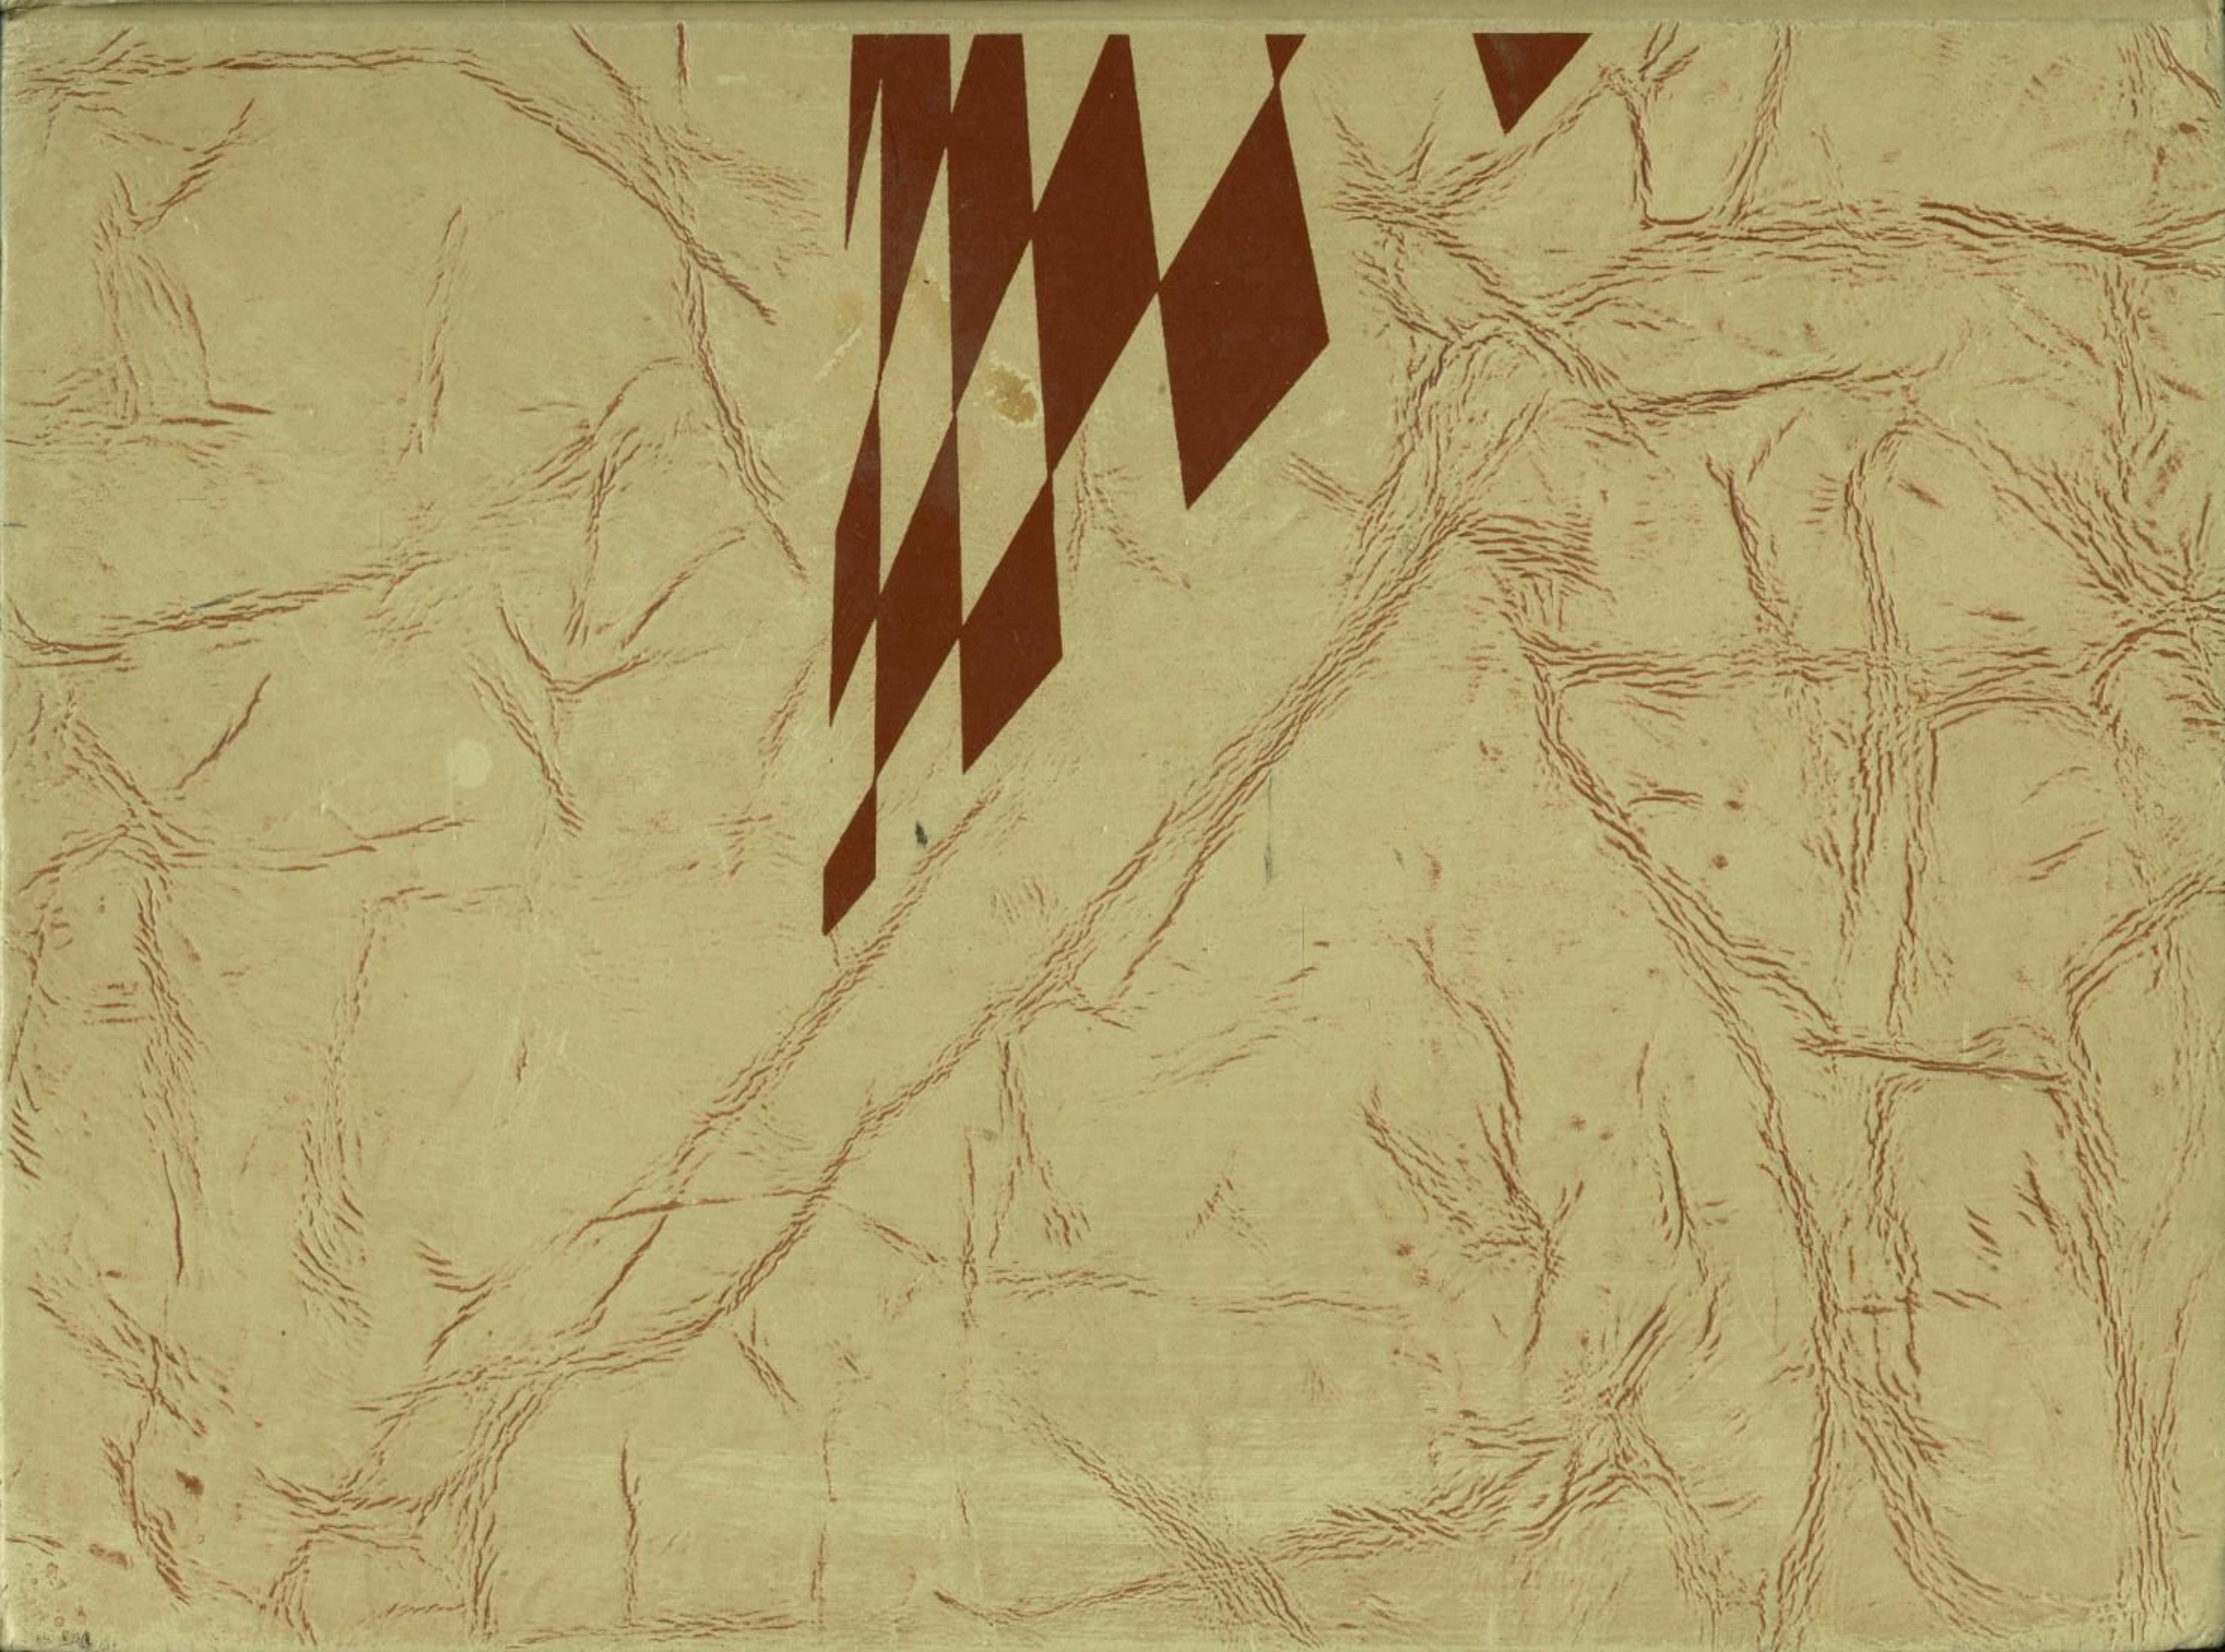
There Is Always Something Happening in Panther Country!!





After a lifetime of accomplishing nearly everything by myself, my year as Editor of the Reflector has taught me so much about tacklin projects too enormous for one person. I encountered endless frustrations, missed deadlines, and complications because ideas photographs, and pages didn't turn out as planned. I poured into this book all of the creativity and perseverance I possessed, but a year book doesn't come to life because of one person's efforts. To coin Princess Diana's description of her Royal duties, serving as Editor o the Reflector is 30% fantastic and 70% sheer slog. The fantastic portion is made up of the people who helped to make this book specia I extend my sincere thanks to the following people for their contribution to the 1984 Reflector: Mr. Stephens for constantly being a pa tient advisor; Mr. Hastings, Taylor Publishing Representative, for his immeasurable help, advice, and creativity; Mr. Goforth an Powell's Studios for a fantastic opening section and a year of photography; Mr. McDaniel for his help with photography and develop ing; Mr. Arthur and Mr. Kramer for their photography; all of the people in the Office for the assistance with names and schedules; Mr Lowry for delivering film to Powell's; Mr. Burgess and Sue Mathias for the cover and artwork; Mr. Frye and the Business Staff for sell ing the ads and yearbooks; Section Editors — Tricia Snyder, Sports; Amy Pratt, Activities; Cheryl Roepke, Organizations; Sue Graves Underclassmen; Kezia Carpenter and Jodie Kollens, Advertising; Ann Phelan for her help with Activities; Erin Warren for the senio polls; Bart Girdwood for sports copy; Chris Haley for the football pages; Brad Thomas, Amy Snyder, Cindy Smith, and the Maume Gang working at Little Caesar's for picture identification; my sister Pat and neighbor, Jimmy Kozy, for an unbelievable amount of hel and talent this summer, but most of all my parents for a year's worth of help, support, stamina, and patience.

I hope that this yearbook will be an enjoyable, special collection of memories for everyone.

Sincerely,
Kelley McConnaughy
Editor-in-Chief


Dear Psychopathic Degenerate,
Howdy! Just kidding
about the "Degenerate" part.
Would you like to buy some real estate in Nicaragua? Or how about a travel plan? I hear the communist guerillas are lovely this time of year.
Anyhoo, have a great year and always remember the proverb:
If you open your mouth too wide,
you might swallow a fly.
